

We Welcome You

Cheerfully ♩ = 63-72

$\text{F}$   $\text{C}^7$   $\text{F}$   $\text{C}^7$
 We wel - come you to - day to Pri - ma - ry And sing this song for $\text{F}$   $\text{Gm}$   $\text{C}^7$   $\text{A}^7$   $\text{Dm}$
 you. We like to be in Pri - ma - ry; We're $\text{F}$   $\text{C}^7$   $\text{F}$  fine  $\text{B}^b$  (B dim) hap - py that you came too.\* When Pri - ma - ry first slower

Cm F7 (Cm) F7 B $\flat$

had its start, Each child was taught to do his part, To

D7 Gm (G dim) F C7

use good man - ners, be po - lite, To love the Lord and

F7 B $\flat$  (B dim) Cm F7

choose the right. Now ev - 'ry week in Pri - ma - ry,

Cm B $\flat$  D7

Chil - dren gath - er rev - 'rent - ly To learn the gos - pel,

Gm (G dim) F (F $\sharp$ dim) Gm C7 D.S. al fine

sing and pray, And share with all who come that day. So we

Words: Ruth Muir Gardner, 1927–1999, and Lois Coombs Sprunt, b. 1930.
© 1978, 1987 IRI
Music: Marjorie Castleton Kjar, b. 1927.
© 1978 IRI

*Alternate words (for celebrating the organization of the Primary, August 25, 1878):
"A happy birthday to the Primary!"
We sing with love and cheer,
For Primary is going to be
One hundred _____ this year.
Use the appropriate number (subtract 1878 from the current year). You might,
for example, fill the blank with and ten or sixteen.